

Hello Students,

Here is the 9th week of Music ideas for you to enjoy. I am thinking of you and miss you.

Please stay healthy and happy and try to be creative everyday.

Feel free to reach out with any comments, ideas or to just say "Hi" through your classroom teachers. Know that I am here to encourage your creative learning. kconway@hvesd.com

Music Lesson and Ideas for This Week:

Peter & The Wolf by Sergei Prokofiev

Sergei Prokofiev wrote the story and composed the music for Peter and the Wolf in 1936. It was written in two weeks for a children's theatre in Moscow. He wrote the music as a child's introduction to the orchestra with each character being represented by an instrument or group of instruments. Peter and the Wolf was an immediate success and continues to be enjoyed today by children all over the world.

Peter & The Wolf by Vancouver Orchestra:<https://youtu.be/MfM7Y9Pcdzw>

The Story(with Music) with Pictures of Peter and the Wolf:<https://youtu.be/9ueGfjBKbiE>

This is an amazing classic story with beautiful orchestration that can celebrate the imagination in all of us, no matter what age. It is such an easy way for children to relate to classical music because each of the characters have such a strong auditory appeal. Listen to the story, pick out your favorite character and what he/she sounds like. Why do you like these sounds, and how do they make you feel? This is the version, illustrated by Peter Malone, that I share in the classroom because the illustrations are also gorgeous.

I never get tired of this story, especially the music. Enjoy!

And for your Movement Fun From Go Noodle:

Pop See Ko -<https://youtu.be/Pwn4beja1QE>

Milkshake:<https://youtu.be/dNL6RwymoNg>

